Objective of the Program

- In the internet age, IP rights are vital to the success of a business or brand. There are laws that protect owners of IP, mostly in the form of patents, copyrights, and trademarks. However, violation of the terms of these protections can lead to misappropriation and unfair competition. It can jeopardize economic success by slowing down the production of new ideas and content. Generally, the objectives of IP law include:
- Financial incentive – IP rights give creators of IP a financial incentive.
- Economic growth – IP law can facilitate economic growth by giving statutory expression to the creators' economic rights and promoting economic and social development through the fostering of fair trade.

Outcomes of the Workshop:

- Identify criteria's to fit one's own intellectual work in particular form of IPRs. Apply statutory provisions to protect particular form of IPRs.
- Analyze rights and responsibilities of holder of Patent, Copyright, Trademark, and Industrial Design etc.
- Identify procedure to protect different forms of IPRs national and international level.
- Develop skill of making search using modern tools and technics.

PARTICIPANTS:

32 members are participated.
