A Report on "EXPRESS IN OPINION ON DOMESTIC AND SEXUAL VIOLENCE"

Date: 16-10-2019.

Department of Basic Sciences & Humanities conducted a one-day Seminar on "Express in opinion on domestic and sexual violence" on 15th October 2019 for all students.

Objective: To find out the reasons of domestic violence reported against adult and adolescent females. To identify the socio-demographic correlation with society. To find out the opinion of the females to cope with the act of violence and to overcome the situation.

Speaker: Mrs. Amrutha, Social worker

VMTW conducted the activity of the year 2019 by organising a domestic and sexual violence workshop for women's. Sexual violence is a serious public health problem and has a profound short- or long-term impact on physical and mental health, such as an increased risk of sexual and reproductive health problems. From the Ancient Greeks to the 20th century, sexual violence was considered to only happen to women and to be commonplace and "normal" during both war and peacetime. In this session around 200 students have participated in rally and seminar.

Outcome: Domestic violence has a substantial detrimental impact on people and our communities, making it a severe social issue and a public health concern. Students must thus be aware of the social issues that are present.

Coordinators: Mrs. Suzan Shalini, Assistant professor of BSH
