A Report on “Importance of Nurturing Gender Sensitivity through Education”

Date: 03-03-2021.

Department of Basic Science & Humanities conducted a one-day Seminar on “Importance of Nurturing Gender Sensitivity through Education.” on 02-03-2021 for II Year students.

Objective: To develop inclusive practices to support and nurture gender equality through education.

Speaker: K.Chandra Sekhar, Assistant professor in VITS

Speaker has mainly focused on nurturing gender sensitization in educational institutes will create awareness among the children, parents and other members of the community about their roles in future as the men and women. Speaker has as said strongly that our education institutions need to focus on gender sensitivity and to reduce discrimination in the society high level of awareness is required. Focused on gender awareness programs to parent that both daughter and son need to be treated equally and also said that school-parent relationship should be strong so that they can discuss about the issues at homes and we need focus more on rural women education.

Now at present educational intuitions should also create necessary awareness in which the academic, social and physical environment and a definite plan is required in institution to create gender equality. Gender sensitivity training should be mandatory for teachers where it develops desirable attitudes towards girls and boys. In the session around 260 students & faculty have participated.

Outcome: This sort of awareness sessions will help students to depend less on subconscious assumptions and generalizations and more on individual personality traits.

Coordinators:, Mrs.Suzan Shalini, Assistant professor of BSH

Date & Time: The Seminar was conducted on 02-03-2021 at 10:30 AM-12:30 PM.
