A Report on a Guest Lecture on "Empowering Women through Gender Sensitization"

Department of Basic Science & Humanities has organized a one-day Seminar on 07/03/2018 for students and faculty.

Topic: Empowering women through Gender Sensitization

Resource Person: Ms. J. Usha Sree, Assistant professor.

Venue: VMTW Seminar Hall

Time: 10:00 AM to 1:00 PM

Participants: B. Tech II year Students & Faculty

Coordinators: Mrs. Suzan Shalinis, Assistant Professor of BSH

Aim: I create awareness regarding empowering women and level of potentiality they have and also to empower through gender sensitization.

Speaker: Ms. J. Usha Sree, Assistant professor in English department has focused on issues like achieving gender equality, which is a fundamental human right that is necessary for the realization of peaceful societies and the full potential of individuals. Additionally, it demonstrates how empowering women has a positive impact on economic growth and productivity. But sadly, there is still a long way to go before obtaining full equality between men and women in terms of rights and opportunities. Ending the various forms of gender violence is crucial, as is ensuring that men, women, and girls have equal access to good healthcare, education, financial resources, and political involvement. Equal access to employment, leadership roles, and decision-making positions at all levels must also be accomplished.
