REPORT:

The programme “Gender discrimination at work places-promoting equality for all the genders” was conducted by CSE department on 13th July 2017 from 10.30 am onwards. Mr.M.Uma rani, sub inspector of police addressed the students. The key points discussed in the session are outlined below. Gender discrimination at work places-promoting equality for all the genders equality and the empowerment of women life at the heart of the Sustainable Development Goals, and they are vital to fully realizing the rights and potential of all persons. It is necessary to achieve progress towards systematically and effectively main streaming gender and promoting gender equality and the empowerment of women in our programmatic activities and organizational policies and practices. The students are being familiarized with the country’s sex ratio, gender stereotypes, female and infanticide gender equality at home, in society, politics, religion, at the workplace, in school and among widows. Awareness is being created about the constitutional provisions and rights concerning women. The speaker advised all the students not be indiscriminate towards gender and support all gender. As part of this seminar 68 students were participated. We organized this program successfully with the support of Principal and Management.

The poster features the Vignan's Institute of Management and Technology for Women logo and name at the top. Below it, there are illustrations of three people: a man in a suit carrying a briefcase, a man in a suit standing with hands on hips, and a woman in a black dress. To the right of the illustrations, the text reads: GENDER DISCRIMINATION AT WORK PLACES PROMOTING ON

REPORT:

On November 18, 2017, the VMTW department of ECE & EEE organized a drug awareness programme at the college seminar hall. The guest speaker was Dr. Ravi, general physician at the Govt. Hospital in Ghatkesar.

The program began with a welcome address by the Principal, Dr. G Apparao Naidu. He highlighted the importance of drug awareness and prevention, especially among young people. Dr. Ravi then gave a presentation on the different types of drugs, their effects on the body and mind, and the dangers of drug abuse. He also discussed the signs and symptoms of drug addiction, and how to get help if you or someone you know is struggling with addiction. The presentation was well-received by the students, who asked many questions about drug abuse and addiction.

Dr. Ravi answered the questions patiently and informatively.

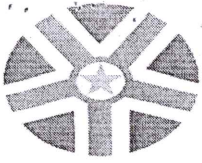

The program concluded with a vote of thanks by the HOD-ECE. He thanked Dr. Ravi for his presentation, and the department head for organizing the program. The drug awareness program was a valuable educational event for the students. It helped to raise awareness of the dangers of drug abuse, and the resources available to help those who are struggling with addiction.

Conclusion

The drug awareness programme was a success. It helped to raise awareness of the dangers of drug abuse, and the resources available to help those who are struggling with addiction. I recommend that the VMTW department of ECE & EEE continue to organize drug awareness programs in the future. Total 171 students are participated in this programme.

REPORT:

The programme "Women Empowerment-2k18" was conducted on 10th April 2018 from 10.30 am onwards. Mrs. Annapurna Shah addressed the students. Women empowerment is a human right, but our world faces a persistent gap in access to opportunities and decision-making power for women and men. Globally, women have fewer opportunities for economic participation than men, less access to basic and higher education, greater health and safety risks, and less political representation. Guaranteeing the rights of women and giving them opportunities to reach their full potential is critical not only for attaining gender equality, but also for meeting a wide range of international development goals. Empowered women and girls contribute to the health and productivity of their families, communities, and countries, creating a ripple effect that benefits everyone. The word gender describes the socially- constructed roles and responsibilities that societies consider appropriate for men and women. Gender equality means that men and women have equal power and equal opportunities for financial independence, education, and personal development. Women's empowerment is a critical aspect of achieving gender equality. It includes increasing a woman's sense of self-worth, her decision-making power, her access to opportunities and resources, her power and control over her own life inside and outside the home, and her ability to effect change. Yet gender issues are not focused on women alone, but on the relationship between men and women in society. Addressed the people and he said that the students have learnt, how much percentage of women are involving in employment and "what is the key role of women in professional development ". As part of this seminar 220 students were participated. We organized this program successfully with the support of Principal and Management.
